

Local Advisory Board Code of Conduct 2023

As members of the Local Advisory Board, we acknowledge that the core functions of governance are the responsibility of the Board of Trustees, but we will support the Trustees in fulfilling the strategic functions at a local level and within our delegated powers.

Once this code has been adopted, all board members agree to faithfully abide by it.

We recognise and support the principles set out in the charity governance code.

We will abide by the Seven Nolan Principles of Public Life:

Selflessness

We will act solely in terms of the public interest.

Integrity

We will avoid placing ourselves under any obligation to people or organisations that might try inappropriately to influence us in our work. We will not act or take decisions in order to gain financial or other material benefits for ourselves, our family, or our friends. We will declare and resolve any interest and relationships.

Objectivity

We will act and take decisions impartially, fairly and on merit, using the best evidence and without discrimination or bias.

Accountability

We are accountable to the public for our decisions and actions and will submit ourselves to the scrutiny necessary to ensure this.

Openness

We will act and take decisions in an open and transparent manner. Information will not be withheld from the public unless there are clear and lawful reasons for so doing.

Honesty

We will be truthful.

Leadership

We will exhibit these principles in our own behaviour. We will actively promote and robustly support the principles and be willing to challenge poor behaviour wherever it occurs.

We will apply the highest standards and will:

- act within our powers
- promote the success of the trust
- exercise independent judgement
- exercise reasonable care, skill and diligence
- avoid conflicts of interest
- not accept benefits from third parties
- declare interests in proposed transactions or arrangements

As individuals on the Local Advisory Board, we agree to:
